Chapter 1 by Nurul Kamila

SYNOPSIS

I am among those who do not really care about the sixth sense. Even more to not believe. Knowing that the new student in your classroom said if you have a guardian. It does not make sense. Guardian only possessed by those who are privileged. While I have nothing special at all. I included a short-bodied teenager. My grades were not good. Living in a modest family. Schools may include the best schools throughout the city. Have a friend who is mediocre. See, I'm not special. And I was happy with it. But no, when someone said to me that I had a guardian. And that means I'm special? But again, I do not believe it.
